FILED

OCT 3 0 1989

MEMORIAL TO

FIRST JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT

ALFRED WILLIAM BULLOCK

CADDO PARISH, LOUISIANA

Alfred William Bullock was born July 17, 1919 in Shreveport, where he died on July 19, 1989.

He is survived by his wife, Carolyn Deal Bullock, three children, William Harry, Donald Lee and James Alfred, his daughter-in-law, Virginia Raney Bullock, their two children, Bradden and Jaimee Rene, his sister, Lyndall B. Tinnin, and a nephew, Robert Tinnin.

He was preceded in death by his mother, Jessie Lee Duty, his father, Otis W. Bullock, his brother, Byron, and two nieces, Claire and Faye Tinnin.

Alfred attended:

Allendale Elementary School,
Old Broadmoor School,

A. C. Steere Elementary School,

C. E. Byrd High School, where he graduated in 1936,

Centenary College, Shreveport, where he graduated in 1940, with a B. S. Degree, LSU Law School, where he graduated in 1943 with an L.L.B. Degree.

He was admitted to the practice of law by the Louisiana State Supreme Court on July 28, 1943.

Alfred was also admitted to practice before the U. S. District Court for the Western District of Louisiana, the U. S. Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit, and on December 7, 1955 was admitted to practice before the United States Supreme Court.

He was appointed U. S. Commissioner for the Western District of Louisiana in 1944, a position he held until 1957.

He was a Methodist, and attended the First United Methodist Church of Shreveport.

Alfred was a devoted husband and father and took great pride in his family.

As a young man he enjoyed all outdoor sports, particularly golf and horseback riding. He kept a horse in the backyard of the family home in Broadmoor for many years.

He envisioned himself as a good horse trader, and from time to time swapped horses with his longtime friend, Beasley, each thinking he had gotten the best deal.

He was a collector of American Indian relics, arrowheads, pottery and the like, some of which he found on property owned by the family near Simsboro, Louisiana. In later years he and his sons went into rock-polishing in a big way - filling up his garage with saws, tumblers, polished rocks and a good stock of yet-to-be-polished rocks.

Alfred was a good, capable and conscientious lawyer. His specialty in law was successions and title work. He did some tort work in his early years, as well as some domestic work, however, his practice developed primarily in the field of successions.

He had a host of clients, mostly working men and women, some of whom brought him small but complicated problems which meant a great deal to them, but often a headache to him. He never refused to help them.

 $\label{eq:hemade_friends} \mbox{ He made friends easily and never forgot them.}$ We will miss him.

We ask that this Memorial be duly recorded in the Records of the First Judicial District Court; that a certified copy be delivered to the family and that a copy be forwarded to the Louisiana State Supreme Court for recordation.

THUS DONE AND SIGNED this 30 day of October,

Respectfully submitted

James M. Barton

Leven Hill Harris

Paul R. Mayer, Chairman